Greetings!

Here we are in the first full week of the month of October

Hope you had a great, fun and bize last week

My week was bize, did some volunteering, watched my granddaughter and worked on the web site

There's a lot of changes

Notice the "new" name?

I'm going to add a submit an event form, soon as I learn how to do the formtoemail.php thing

Don't forget to check the Fun to Run Page

It's loaded with runs, walks, etc to help shed those extra pounds

You'll find it on the web site list of contents

There are new things on the Halloween Fun list

Check the web site for the link more things are added to Children's events.

I am going to have a list of Holiday Happenings (tree lightings, sleigh rides, etc

If your town is having any of these, let me know ASAP

The holidays will be here sooner than we think

Now, I am going to put in my two cents about two subjects

The first is Oktoberfest

A 2-week festival held each year in Munich, Germany

It usually includes traditional german food and in some occasions

beer

Let's get it straight

It doesn't matter how you spell it (Oktoberfest or Oktoberfest)

If you are advertising an Ocktoerfest/Oktoberfest

Don't have us show up and there's no

Hendl (chicken), Schweinsbraten (roast pork), Haxn (knuckle of pork),

Steckerlfisch (grilled fish on a stick), Würstel (sausages) along with Brezel (Pretzel)), Knödeln (potato or bread dumplings), Käsespätzle (cheese noodles),

Reiberdatschi (potato pancakes), Sauerkraut or Blaukraut (red cabbage) along with such Bavarian delicacies as Obatzda (a fatty, spiced cheese-butter concoction) and/ or Weisswurst (a white sausage).

if you're not having these things

Call it what it is: FALL FESTIVAL, PUMPKIN FEST, OCTOBER FESTIVAL

The second is Halloween

It's Halloween, not Mardi Gras

IT IS NOT MARDI GRAS TIME!!

Mardi Gras" (French for Fat Tuesday) is the day before Ash Wednesday.

Mardi Gras is the final day of Carnival, the three day period preceding the beginning of Lent, the Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday immediately before Ash Wednesday.

The entire three day period has come to be known in many areas as Mardi Gras

This usually occurs in late February or early March.

In 2009, it's Tuesday, February 24

Now with that said

I hope you enjoy this week
