Hello Everyone

Due to the extreme conditions there will be no event schedule for this week

BizEurtle will not worry about events when so many others have been devastated by this storm

BizEurtle will be dedicating it's efforts in getting out news of assistance

The Calendar of Events www.eventkeeper.com/code/events.cfm?curOrg=BIZETURTLE and the Calendar of Plays www.my.calendars.net/bizeturtleplays will be kept updated as best as possible

I am glad I can sit in my dimly light abode.
 and realize that I AM sitting in my own apartment!!

When the electric came on in my apartment complex Everyone was given this gift in different ways My gift was my refrigerator, microwave and stove/oven came on A few people only had the electric come on in certain rooms, but still no refrigeration

Please take note I have no internet and must rely on the usage of others

Let's all try and do what ever we can to help each other

As I mentioned my refrigerator is on, so I have gladly allowed it be used by some of my neighbors

Remember just because your street has electric, not everyone else does Check on your neighbors especially family and friends.

The Shop-Rite in West Long Branch is open (Perhaps the Neptune one, too)
 You can use your debit, but there's no cash back
 They do have charcoal,if you have a grill and no indoor cooking

If anyone knows if any food store is open, let me know

Also let me know about gas stations and shelters

You may be without electric, but check and see if an elderly person or someone you know may want to come over and be there with you Sometimes its better to have company then to be alone in troubles like this will help determine if product sales and profits can help determine
