

T. Thomas Fortune Project

The T. Thomas Fortune Project Committee would like to once again remind everyone of our gala fundraiser, Finding Fortune:

Preserving a National Historic Landmark, that is being held tonight, Friday, June 12, at Two River Theater, Red Bank from 6-10 pm.

Tickets are $75 at the door.

All proceeds will go toward preserving the home of T. Thomas Fortune.

Please pay by check to Red Bank Men's Club Foundation with T. Thomas Fortune Project in the memo

Please use the Bridge Avenue Entrance. We will have one of our Save T. Thomas Fortune House Lawn Signs at the entrance. There is a limited amount of free on-site parking, but additional parking is available along the side of the Two River Theater building on Bridge Avenue and around the corner along Monmouth Street, as well as a block away at the Red Bank Train Station There is a Free Parking garage on West Front Street. Next door to PAZZO restaurant; with entrances

on West Front Street and Wall Street

We will be inside the Marion Huber Theater

We will start the evening with a cocktail hour, that includes hors d'oeuvres served by Readies of Red Bank

Jeffrey Boga, will set a relaxed mood with the jazzy vibe of his violin, while being accompanied by bassist Connor Healy

We invite you to browse, mingle and enjoy the Easels of Information on The Fortune Family Be sure and Visit our Literary Corner. Featuring Books by and about T. Thomas Fortune All books $50

The program will begin around 7:30PM Highlights include a presentation of a donation from the Red Bank Middle School, an update about the progress the committee has made during the year, a brief history of the Fortune Family, Dr Walter Greason will speak about our matching grant fund, We will have a surprise reveal, Dr. Brian Roper will be doing a Tribute to Dr. Fred Fortune (son of T. Thomas Fortune), and our guest speaker, CLAIRE SERANT will further educate us on the amazing accomplishments of T. Thomas Fortune

Further info at thomasfortunehouse.weebly.com

T. THomas Fortune Project | thomasfortunehouse@gmail.com |
thomasfortunehouse.weebly.com

STAY CONNECTED:

Try it FREE today.